Erieairpark@juno.com

Awarded the Private Airport of the Year Award
by IDOT in 2022

The Erie Airpark is a 26-acre federally licensed airport privately owned by Jim and Sue Robinson.

They have hangars for rent with most aircraft on site in the light sport aircraft category.

There is a flying club that meets at the Airpark once a month and the park allows primitive camping as a Harvest Host Campground with fire pits and a shelter also available.
